Jean-Yves Le Drian, Minister for Europe and Foreign Affairs, traveled to Berlin on Monday 11th of June to take part in a ministerial meeting in the « Format Normandie ». Bringing together Ukraine, Russia and Germany and France as co-mediators, this format of discussion, founded four years ago on the sidelines of the commemoration ceremonies of the landing of June 6, 1944, aims to achieve the resolution of the conflict in Donbas. Participating in his first ministerial meeting in « Format Normandie », like his German counterpart, the minister expressed the wish of France and Germany to see the parties re-engage quickly in the implementation of the September Minsk agreements. 2014 and February 2015. The ministerial meeting in Berlin followed the recent contacts between the heads of state and government of the « Format Normandie »: interview of the President of the Republic and the German Chancellor with the Ukrainian President in Aachen on May 10, respective displacements of Mrs. Merkel and the president of the Republic in Russia, May 18 and May 24 and 25.-----

As the President of the Republic pointed out on May 24 during his visit to St. Petersburg, the coming months will be decisive. Without the implementation of concrete security, political, humanitarian and economic progress, the credibility of the current peace process is at stake. We must do everything possible to break out of a situation marked by hundreds of ceasefire violations every day, dozens of deaths every month, the use of heavy weapons and a degraded humanitarian situation for people living in the conflict zone. France and Germany will therefore make proposals to Ukraine and Russia for action in each of these areas, in order to initiate a virtuous dynamic towards progress towards the full implementation of the Minsk agreements, culminating in return of Ukraine's sovereignty over territories currently under separatist control in the context of local self-government./.

PRESS CONFERENCE ON 9TH of JULY AT FOREIGN AFFAIRS MINISTRY-----

Q - Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky has proposed to implement a new negotiating format concerning the situation in Donbass with the participation of Russia, France, Ukraine, Germany, the United Kingdom and the United States. How do you react to this proposal? Do you think it can help advance the resolution of the crisis in eastern Ukraine?

France welcomes the willingness of Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskiy to engage in a dialogue with his Russian counterpart to resolve the crisis between the two countries. Meetings in the « Format Normandie » (France, Germany, Russia, Ukraine) aim to facilitate the implementation of the commitments made by the parties under the Minsk Agreements, which constitute the agreed basis for a settlement of conflict in eastern Ukraine. These meetings are not exclusive of any other diplomatic effort aimed at this goal, and complement, inter alia, the discussions in the trilateral Contact Group under the auspices of the OSCE.

A: The situation in the east of Ukraine is the subject of constant attention by the French authorities. The next meetings in the Normandy format will be announced when the time comes.
