Funding and Interference in British Politics & Conservative Party

Sir Kier Starmer in his response

USPA NEWS - Labour Party Leader Warned of Foreign Funding and Interference in British Politics & Conservative Party

Sir Kier Starmer Leader of The Labour Party was the Chief Guest at a Muslim Eid Celebration organised by BMFL in London. International community leaders and famous personalities were also present as observers and supporters of the Labour Party UK. At the event Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and international community welfare campaigner, took the opportunity to address the British Labour Party Leader Sir Kier Starmer and the VIP guests present.

Shazada Hayat, expressed a stark warning to the next potential Prime Minister of United Kingdom, about the funding and interference of foreign power in British politics. Without mincing his words, he told Sir Kier Starmer, in the presence of the full house, about the interference and lucrative funding being offered to the other party, in preparation for the next general election, which is in approximately 12 months.

Shazada Hayat asked what the Labour Leader was doing to tackle this unjust and unfair situation. The question and wording left the Labour Leader perplexed and very concerned at what Shazada Hayat said, which was a very serious cause for concern. However, as a true and committed leader, who is as the media and poles suggest is heading to be the next British Prime Minister, Sir Kier Starmer in his response said, We are going to fight them and will beat them because the British public are with us.

Shazada Hayat also asked the Labour Leader, who recently made a pledge of flooding the House of Lords with peers/members, does this mean more Muslims will be chosen by him for the House of Lords, as Muslims are underrepresented.

The British Muslims are very concerned that foreign governments and their intelligence services are interfering with the politics of Britain and in the corridors of power in the UK. The Russian and Indian business magnets, for whatever reason, are pouring millions of pounds into the Conservative Party funds. The question is, is it because these individuals have tremendous respect for the patriotism of the likes of Sir Winston Churchill or is it, they find Prime Minister Rishi Sunak to be more in tune with their aims and objectives.

Shazada Hayat went on to say, The Conservatives have managed to raise, under Prime Minister Rishi Sunak, £12million donations in just 3 months this year. When normally this amount of money can take up to 3 years to raise. This is alarming and very worrying for the British intelligence service and the patriotic British public. The great British democracy, as we know it is being compromised by foreign powers and the dark forces inside the UK and internationally, working covertly and overtly, to secure the outcome at the next general election.

These dark forces will be challenged head on by the British national security and the patriotic British public.

One has to give the Labour Party Leader Sir Kier Stramer full credit where it is due, he has managed to bring the Labour Party off the life support machine and on the verge of victory of him becoming the next Prime Minister of United Kingdom. On the other hand, the true patriotic Conservatives must realise the reason they are in dismay is because of the foreign interference and intrusion into the Conservative Party by those people who are not, patriotic or "True Blues". These dark forces loyalty, values and interest lie elsewhere, which is against the national interest of Britain. The Conservatives must get their house in order.

Britain needs the great politicians, the likes of Sir Winston Churchill, Dame Margaret Thatcher, Sir Clement Attlee and Aneurin Bevan regardless of which political party they belong. The fundamental thing they possessed was diehard loyalty, as true patriots, who put Britain first at every inch of the way and every second of their lives. The great British public cannot be fooled. We the British nation will have the chance to pick who is in essence and reality the best person to be running this great nation in the next general election. Is it Sir Kier Starmer or Rishi Sunak? The next general election, how it is poised presently and running, should not be about politics but primarily about patriotism and national interest. May God Bless and protect Great Britain.
